The Challenge

As a new project, we need reliable, flexible and fast paced help to support growth and rapid scaling.

How It Is Done

By practicing our strong communication habits, Very Pilas acts like the oil in the gear that keeps all team members informed in a timely manner so they can run smoothly. We support CarFetch.com by:

- ✓ Providing CRM maintenance
- ✓ Tier 1 and 2 IT support
- ✓ Basic SEO support
- ✓ Sales IT support

The Result

The people in Very Pilas are Pilas indeed! Not only have they provided excellent quality of work, but also get along exceptionally well with our team. Our client services manager is very helpful and a delight to work with. I invest little time in training and I am truly amazed at how professional and personable they all are.
